Feedback from Attendees

“The course is very informative and demonstrative on equipping church leadership with great skills to grow or nurture a caring church. I have really enjoyed it and learnt so much...”

“The best way to sharpen up your pastoral care skills. Definitely recommended!”

“I found this course to be edifying and empowering. It also helped to equip for the task ahead.”

Trainer Bio

My name is Chris Webster. I am a fellow of ACC and have been a member of ACC for some 30 years, a Regional Trainer for the RPCC course for the past 7 years. I am involved in local church leadership and pastoring over many years. My passion is for the wellbeing of those in the Body of Christ and those beyond, in body, mind, soul and spirit. The RPCC course provides an opportunity for the equipping of the saints of which it is a joy and privilege to teach.

My interests include maintaining a small family farm holding, carpentry and joinery when needed and tinkering with a substantial model railway layout. I am married to Ann, with 3 children and 6 grandchildren, and also involved in mission work, healing, prayer ministry and the prophetic.

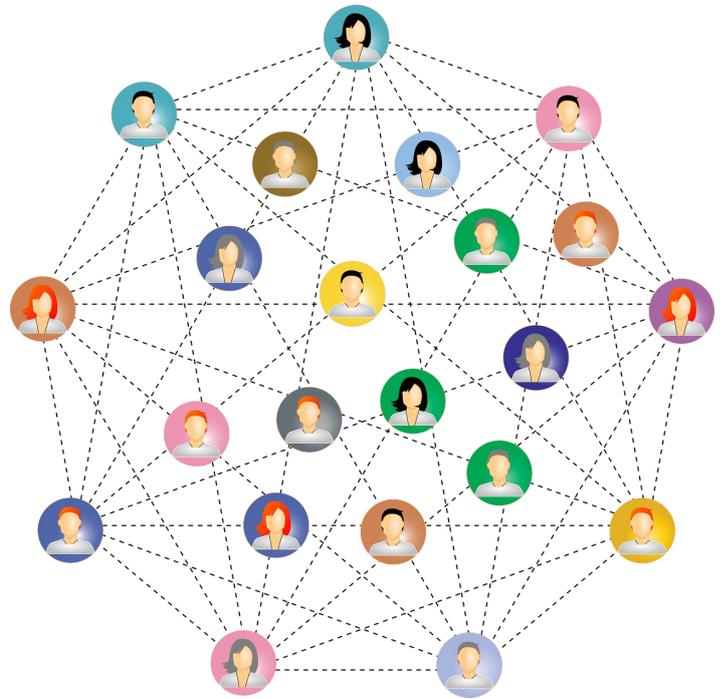

About Association of Christian Counsellors (ACC)

ACC is a professional body set up in 1992 to facilitate quality counselling, psychotherapy, pastoral care and related training.

ACC is also a membership organisation for individual counsellors and psychotherapists; organisations, agencies and churches concerned with counselling/psychotherapy or related activities; and pastoral carers.

About Pastoral Care UK (PCUK)

As part of its commitment to the encouragement, training and resourcing of pastoral carers, ACC has established Pastoral Care UK under its umbrella.

To facilitate the provision, by Christians, of quality counselling, psychotherapy and pastoral care

PCUK's mission

To be a Christian resource for individuals, churches and organisations which enables the missional purpose, potential and practice of pastoral care to be developed.

PCUK's vision

To see the fulfilment of John 13:34-5;

'A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

and God's love expressed in quality relationships and through pastoral care, restoring individual lives, building healing communities and growing disciples of Jesus.
